

Call for Submissions

We are pleased to announce the Call for Submissions for the Quantitative Finance Conference 2025, which will take place July 31st - August 1st, 2025 at the National University of Singapore. For more information, please visit: Quantitative Finance Conference 2025 Website

Information regarding the 2024 edition of the conference is available at the Quantitative Finance Conference 2024 Website

There are two submission types: Minisymposia and Contributed Talks.

Minisymposia

We invite you to propose a minisymposium that explores cutting-edge research in quantitative finance. We welcome contributions on both classical mathematical finance topics (e.g., stochastic modeling, portfolio optimization) and emerging areas in quantitative finance (e.g., machine learning applications in finance, digital assets).

Each minisymposium will consist of four speakers and will run for 120 minutes.

Organizers of accepted minisymposia will receive a small honorarium. Early submissions may receive expedited acceptance notifications.

Submission Deadline for Minisymposia: May 15th, 2025

Latest Notification of Acceptance for Minisymposia: May 31st, 2025

Contributed Talks

We invite you to submit a contributed talk that presents innovative research in quantitative finance. Each contributed talk will last 30 minutes.

Submission Deadline for Contributed Talks: May 15th, 2025

Latest Notification of Acceptance for Contributed Talks: May 31st, 2025

How to Submit

To submit a minisymposium proposal or a contributed talk, please complete the relevant form in the Submission section on the Quantitative Finance Conference 2025 Website.

Fee Structure:

- PhD Students/Postdocs – 90 SGD
- Others – 280 SGD

We look forward to your submissions and to welcoming you to Singapore for an exciting exchange of ideas in quantitative finance!

Warm regards,

The NUS Quantitative Finance Conference Scientific Program Committee
